Atlanta's Les Dames d'Escoffier host charity event

The Cook's Warehouse, members of the Atlanta Chapter of Les Dames d'Escoffier and Simple Abundance cooking classes teamed up to host a charity cooking demonstration dubbed the "ultimate cooking class." The sold-out event, which was taught by eight chefs, cookbook authors and culinary personalities, raised more than $20,000 for a local food bank. Participating chefs and culinary personalities were, top row, from left: Nancy Lutz, Mary Moore, Nathalie Dupree and Rebecca Lang. Bottom row, from left: Shirley Corriher, Angie Mosier, Virginia Willis and Linda Harrell. Les Dames d'Escoffier is an all-female, international culinary organization devoted to education and philanthropy.
